

This anti-Kerry movie is not a news program. To force 62 stations to show this two weeks before the election is grossly unfair. If "Stolen Honor" is run, it needs to be followed by "Going Upriver". So many stations are owned by the same, very political organization. This situation is a good example of the anti-democratic results of Big Media.

It is such an obvious example of Sinclair's wish to influence an election, and doing whatever they can to do so, while calling it news. Thank you.
